City launches daily video show called ‘Costa Mesa Minute’

COSTA MESA, CALIF.—The City of Costa Mesa has launched a daily video show that provides news and information to the community.

Hosted by Dane Bora, the “Costa Mesa Minute” features content from inside and outside of City Hall and is available on Time Warner Cable (Channel 24), AT&T U-Verse (Channel 99), Facebook (www.facebook.com/CostaMesaCityHall) and the City website home page (www.costamesaca.gov).

“There's so much happening in the Costa Mesa community on a daily basis, we thought it would be a valuable service to residents to give them a mini local news show each day,” said interim Director of Communications Bill Lobdell. “The show's content is similar to what you would find in CEO E-Briefing, though we are including content from outside of City Hall.”

A new show will be available for viewing by 8 a.m. each weekday.
