

The poster features a decorative border on the left and right sides. It consists of a green vine with several acorns and leaves in shades of orange, red, and brown. Two blue birds are perched on the vine. The text is centered and reads:

The City of Costa Mesa & the Fairview Park Friends Committee

invite you on the

Fall Tour of Fairview Park

Find out about the latest on this 208-acre park!

Saturday, November 4, 2006

9:30 - 11:00 a.m.

Meet at the Picnic Shelter at Fairview Park
2525 Placentia Avenue

Carol Proctor, Staff Liaison to the Fairview Park
Friends Committee will be your tour guide.

Special Tour Feature
Birds and Bird Habitat of the Area

Avid bird enthusiast and photographer Leigh Chalkley will share interesting facts about our fine-feathered friends gracing Fairview and Talbert Parks.

Wear comfortable shoes. Dogs on a leash are welcome to join their owners.
The tour may be shortened or cancelled should rain occur.

For further information, please contact the City Manager's Office at (714) 754-5327.